

Camilla Dickinson

USA | 117 min

A New York teen with a passion for astronomy (Adelaide Clemens) finds her privileged universe in danger of collapsing, both by the impending breakup of her parents and the romantic interest of an older boy with a dark past. Based on a novel by the author of A Wrinkle in Time, this nicely understated 1950s period piece flavors its melodrama with an intriguing hint of sci-fi mysticism.